Report on

A One Day Orientation Program on

“NEW VISTAS OF TEACHING, TRAINING AND LEARNING”

March 21st 2019

Organized by the IQAC

Venue: AKCNB Hall, VIIT (A)

In order to create awareness about the importance of Intercultural Competent Teaching in higher education institutions amongst faculty and to update the contemporary areas of overall development, the IQAC organised a one day “Orientation Program on New Vistas of Teaching, Training and Learning” on March 21st 2019. The main objectives of the Program are to strengthen the teaching and learning methodologies that map with the various cultures and attributes prescribed.

The Program Convenor Dr. K. Venkata Rao has extended his opening remarks and formally welcomed all the Dignitaries and participants to the event. He said that the better teaching support better learning because they are most knowledgeable about the practice of teaching and they are responsible for introducing the curiosity in the classroom. Later, he has elaborated about the event in detail and proceeded next session as per the schedule.

The Resource Person Dr. V. M.Rao addressed the participants and enlightened about the ways and means of teaching enrichment. He has also highlighted about process of identifying the teaching area through the process of educational experiences. He has enlightened about various teaching methodologies and curriculum development methods in order to account for the overall development of individual and institution as a systematic and collaborative approach that involves various stakeholders, including educators, administrators, students, parents and community members. He has addressed about essential criteria of good teaching and the credibility of the available recourses. Q&A session was conducted and queries were invited from the participants.

There were 83 faculties who actively participated and the session was concluded by the event coordinator Dr. K. Srinivasa Naik with Vote of thanks.
